

Eco Project

This half term we have an Eco week and will be learning about keeping the environment clean and reducing waste. At school we will be looking at the environmental impact of throwing things away.

For your topic homework this half term, your challenge is to turn some of your old clothes into something new.

This could be anything!

The homework is due in on Friday 3rd February.

